

Lumbier is set in a strategic spot, crossroads of ways and rivers. As a result of such a historically special location, traces of the passage of centuries and diverse cultures -from Roman times until nowadays- can still be found in the village.

Walking through its narrow medieval streets, visiting the nearby bridges, or wandering through the Gorge of Lumbier, we will be able to enjoy its rich heritage and a wide touristic offer to assist visitors.

Visit and get to know

LUMBIER

1 Gorge Interpretation Center. Tourist Office

Touristic and environmental materials designed to enjoy and get to know the world of the river gorges close to Lumbier.

2 Main Altarpiece

The Baroque Main Altarpiece -declared Heritage of Cultural Interest-, decorated with 16th-century low reliefs and a Renaissance carving of the Virgin, is the highlight of the church.

3 Casa Antillón

Baroque palace dating from the 18th century. Its façade shows a rich combination of materials, with iron-barred balconies and framed spans worthy of mention, as well as a late 18th-century Rococo alabaster shield.

4 Puente de la Ida Bridge

Bridge over the River Irati, probably from the Middle Ages, although it has been modified. It was destroyed to prevent the advance of the French Army during the Spanish War of Independence, in 1811.

5 Bridge of the Goats

This medieval-style bridge over the River Salazar witnessed the Battle of the Trinity in 1875, during the Third Carlist War. Local pilgrims walk through it on their annual way to the Trinity Chapel.

6 Iron Bridge

Named like this due to its original metal structure, it was purpose-built in 1909 for the Irati Train to cross over the Salazar River.

7 Bridge of the Goats

This medieval-style bridge over the River Salazar witnessed the Battle of the Trinity in 1875, during the Third Carlist War. Local pilgrims walk through it on their annual way to the Trinity Chapel.

7 City Hall

The oldest City Hall built in Navarre is a Renaissance construction from the late 15th century, made with bricks combined with ashlar masonry. It was rebuilt after being damaged by a fire near 1870.

8 Saint Mary Magdalene Monastery

Built at the end of the 16th century and abandoned by the Benedictine nuns in 1991, nowadays it has been restored and serves as a community center.

9 Sielva Bridge

Upstream of the Bridge of the Goats over the River Salazar, it was probably built in the Middle Ages, with a typical structure of that period and steep slopes on both sides of the bridge.

10 Roman Remains

A 2nd-century Roman mosaic -now displayed on the façade of the building- was found inside the Monastery, next to which we can find these Roman remains. We can also see remains of some walls, used as house supports in the Middle Ages.
